

PROJECT MANAGER

Javan Engineering, as seen in Smart CEO Magazine, is ranked as one of Philadelphia's fastest growing companies. Due to years of sustained growth in an otherwise stagnant market, we provide stability coupled with a rewarding and challenging environment. As we are positioned for continued growth, we are conducting a hiring campaign to assure we continue to attract top level talent and provide best in class service and customer support.

We are looking for career-minded, growth-oriented individuals who want to make a real impact on their own lives as well as on our daily operations. Javan Engineering offers a unique environment that fosters individual growth and rewards performance. A commitment to excellence is deeply rooted in a strong sense of tradition. You'll work alongside a team of award-winning professionals with an impressive track record. Help Javan Engineering continue to be a leader in the engineering industry!
